

RETREAT SPEAKERS

SUMMER SHORE

Summer Shore is the co-founder and director of Revive Ministries, as well as an author, speaker, and voice of encouragement. With over 20 years of experience as a speaker and teacher, Summer uses humor, authenticity, and relatable stories to connect deeply with women and lead them closer to God. She spent six years as an on-air personality in Christian radio and now serves as co-host and producer of the Experience Revival podcast. Summer also loves leading worship whenever she has the opportunity. She and her husband, Jake, have three sons, who keep them on their toes. As a family, they enjoy traveling, seeking out new adventures, and discovering great food—especially at her favorite Cuban restaurant.

MELISSA CAMPBELL

Melissa Campbell is the cofounder and director of Revive Ministries, a bible study teacher, author, speaker, and a co-host of the Experience Revival Podcast. Melissa has a Master's degree in Theological Studies from the Austin Graduate School of Theology and spent 12 years church planting in Oregon with her husband, Jason. She has almost 25 years of ministry experience, leadership development, event planning, and small group discipleship. She enjoys hiking and kayaking the Pacific Northwest with her husband and two college-aged daughters. Melissa has a passion for helping others experience God's kingdom and desires to equip God's people for their calling.
